

Nominations for the PPN Secretariat – November 2024

Environment Seats

No eligible nominations were received.

Clondalkin / Newcastle / Rathcoole / Saggart / Brittas seat

One eligible nomination was received, however the current meeting times of the Secretariat do not suit. Proposal to place on a panel for future consideration should Secretariat meeting times change.

Sean O'Brien – Wado Martial Arts Ireland

My Association and club are based in the Newcastle community for over 15yrs and we are well known in the area for dealing with and helping the younger students, teenagers and many of the Newcastle residents over the years, and have great success with our Inclusive students. Talking to people, helping and guiding people in many ways helps and promotes positivity in themselves and their daily life.

Rathfarnham / Templeogue / Firhouse / Bohernabreena seat

Two nominations were received for 1 vacancy. These are listed below. As more nominees were received for seats available, an election process will take place at the PPN Plenary.

Vincent Murray – St Mary's College RFC

Being a member of St Marys College RFC for the last 14 years and having served on the executive for four years, I have a understanding of what is needed and how I can add value to the PPN in South Dublin.

Michael Noonan – Manortown Football Club

Community activity representative with over 40 year's experience in the voluntary and community service community. Time served on multiple projects and community based initiatives and projects across a wide variety of community groups within the city and county.

Nominations for the PPN Secretariat – November 2024

Lucan / Palmerstown / North Clondalkin seat

Two nominations were received for 1 vacancy. These are listed below. As more nominees were received for seats available, an election process will take place at the PPN Plenary.

Rita Harte – Women’s Collective Ireland Lucan

I am passionate about volunteering and making a positive impact in community settings, with over 20 years of experience in volunteering and working. My background includes organizing community events, leading workshops, and providing hands-on support to diverse groups, which has honed my communication and empathy skills. I thrive in collaborative environments, working alongside team members and community stakeholders to deliver programs that meet real needs. With a proactive and compassionate approach, I’m dedicated to creating inclusive, empowering spaces that foster community well-being. My experiences have taught me the importance of listening, adaptability, and consistency, making me a well-rounded and committed candidate for this role.

Krishna Sambaturu – Adamstown Telugu Community

I am the founder and head of Adamstown Telugu Community (ITA). I have been serving the community in Adamstown since 2012 by organising various sports and social activities (Walkers group, Badminton) apart from running Telugu language school. I have the passion for community service and have time to take responsibility of PPN Secretariat. I believe I would be the best person for taking up this position.

Nominations for the PPN Secretariat – November 2024

Tallaght seat

Two nominations were received for 1 vacancy. These are listed below. As more nominees were received for seats available, an election process will take place at the PPN Plenary.

Kieran McDonagh – Killinarden Celtic Football Club

For Such A Young Person I Have Been Heavily Involved In Football In My Area Of Killinarden For Nearly 10 Years. I'm Chairperson Of Killinarden Celtic Football Club And Am Fighting Tooth And Nail To Get Our Members Playing In Killinarden Park.

John Conroy – Tallaght Toastmasters

I have a degree in management and local government. I am presently chair of Kilnamanagh Neighborhood Watch, which I set up 13 years ago. Have lived in Tallaght for just under 50 years. i have a lot of experience working as a volunteer in Tallaght, in the community, and arts. I was the recipient of the first art award from the Person of the Year. I've Spent more than 30 years working in the public sector, including the city manager's office in Dublin City Council, under John Feeney. this was part of a project to bring about change in the council. I tend to work with others to reach a consensus as opposed to conflict. I am free during the day and will enthusiastically embrace the work of the PPN.